Released: December 22, 2020

OFFICE OF GENERAL COUNSEL REMINDS PARTIES THAT EXECUTIVE ORDER
CLOSING COMMISSION ON DECEMBER 24 WILL EXTEND CERTAIN DEADLINES FALLING ON THAT DATE

On December 11, 2020, the President released an Executive Order providing for the closing of executive departments and agencies of the Federal Government on December 24, 2020.¹ Section 1.4(j) of the Commission's rules states that if a filing deadline falls on a holiday the document shall be filed on the next business day.² Pursuant to Section 1.4(j), all filing deadlines that would have occurred on Thursday, December 24, 2020, will instead occur on Monday, December 28, 2020.³ Additionally, December 24 will not count in computing filing periods of less than seven days under Section 1.4(g) of the Commission's rules, since it will be a Commission holiday.⁴

Please direct all questions regarding this Public Notice to the Office of the Secretary, Geraldine Taylor at Geraldine.Taylor@fcc.gov (202) 418-0305.
